

Your kid gets $1,000. Here's how to actually claim it.

30 min

ALL-IN TIME

$0

COST TO YOU

~$3.4k

VALUE AT AGE 18

Three steps. ~30 minutes. $0 cost. Print this, sit down with a laptop, and check things off.

STEP

1

Open a free account

~10 MIN

- 1 Go to vanguard.com, fidelity.com, or schwab.com. Any one is fine.
- 2 Click Open an account → choose Custodial / UTMA.
- 3 Have ready: kid's SSN, photo of birth certificate, your driver's license.
- 4 You're the custodian. The account becomes your kid's at 18 or 21 (by state).
- 5 Optionally link a checking account to add more money later.

ACCOUNT TYPE

UTMA

$0 to open

STEP

2

Claim the $1,000

~10 MIN • THEN WAIT 2-6 WKS

- 1 Go directly to irs.gov or treasury.gov.
Type it yourself.
- 2 Find the federal newborn-account enrollment page.
- 3 Submit: kid's SSN, your tax info, the new account number from Step 1.
- 4 Double-check every digit of the account number. Submit.
- 5 Screenshot the confirmation. The deposit arrives in 2-6 weeks.

GO TO

irs.gov

never click texts

STEP
3

Invest it. Then forget it.

~5 MIN • ONCE

- 1 Log in. Your $1,000 will show as settled cash.
- 2 Search ticker VTI (Vanguard Total Stock Market).
- 3 Click Buy → enter $1,000 → submit.
- 4 Turn on Reinvest Dividends in account settings.
- 5 Set a yearly calendar reminder. Otherwise, leave it alone.

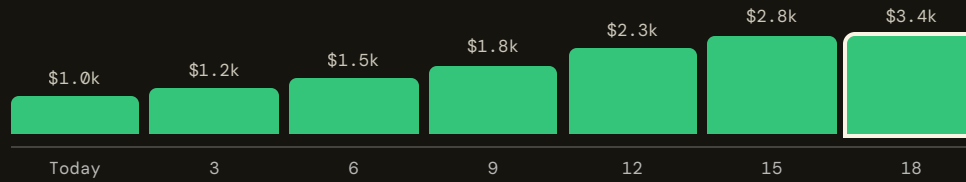

BUY THIS

VTI

0.03% / yr

IF YOU DO NOTHING ELSE

$1,000 → ~$3,400 by age 18.

SCAM ALERT

Anyone offering to help you claim the $1,000 for a fee is a fraud. The real process is free.

THE MARKET

It will crash, multiple times, in the next 18 years. Don't sell. Recoveries are where the gains live.

FINE PRINT

At age 18 or 21 (by state), the account is legally your kid's. You can guide, not take back.

Official sources: irs.gov · treasury.gov · Brokerages: vanguard.com · fidelity.com · schwab.com

Informational only · Not financial advice · 2026